What Is Design Tools?

- A suite of tools created for use with Canvas
- A means for content creators and instructional designers to quickly create courses that are:
 - Mobile-ready
 - Accessible
 - Supportive of instructional design best practices
- A way to help Canvas courses look great without having to know CSS, HTML, or JavaScript

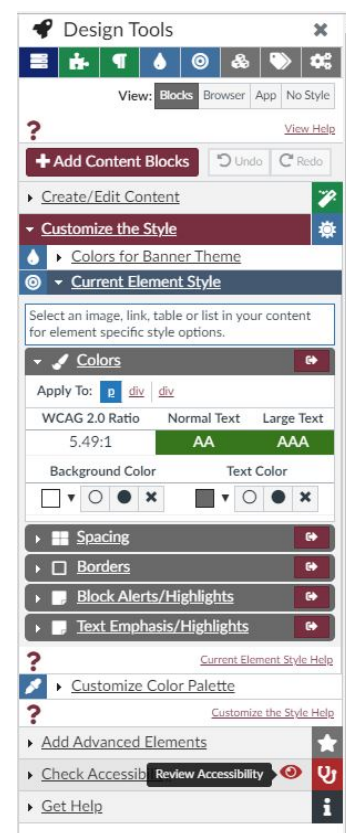

How Does Design Tools Work?

- Design Tools has three tools that work together to help rapidly scaffold, design, and style Canvas courses and content.
 - Content Editor Tool
 - Multi-Tool
 - Upload/Embed Image Tool

Content Editor Tool

- Create, customize, and style content for interactive and engaging courses
- Insert interactive widgets, HTML snippets, or quick checks to enhance learning outcomes
- Use accessibility tools to check content at point of creation

Multi-Tool

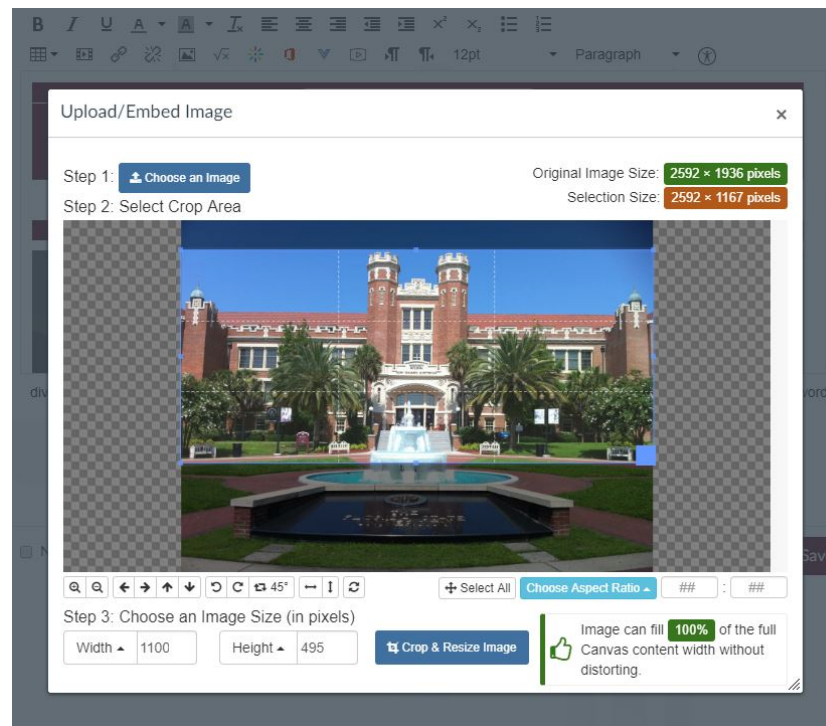

- Scaffold a course shell
- Create pages using templates
- Create course modules with one click with the Module Builder
- Manage all assignment dates from a single screen with the Due Date Modifier

The screenshot shows the 'Module Builder' interface. At the top, there's a green header with the title 'Module Builder'. Below it, a list of instructions: 'Create new modules or add to existing modules', 'Add assignments, content pages, discussions, text headers, and quizzes', and 'Duplicate existing content (except quiz questions, hope to add those in the future)'. The main section is titled 'Existing Modules' and contains a table of modules. The first module is 'Module 1: What is a Derivative?'. It has a table of items: 'Derivatives Assignment #1', 'Derivative Problem Assistance', and 'Derivative Quiz'. Each item has a 'Prefix' field, a '#' field, and a 'Delete' button. There are also 'Update This Module', 'Delete Module', and 'Delete Module and Contents' buttons. Below the 'Existing Modules' section is the 'New Modules' section, which has a 'New Module Pattern' form. This form includes fields for 'Module Prefix', 'Number of Modules to Create', and 'Starting Number' (with a note '(Last Module: "Module 3")'). There is a 'Generate Module List' button.

Upload/Embed Image Tool

- Upload, crop, resize, and embed images directly in your Canvas courses
- Easily customize the home page image
